Give the gift of Balance

2026 Holiday Gift Collection

A Thoughtful Gift. A Different Approach to Wellness.

Looking for a meaningful gift for someone who has everything?
This holiday season, give them something a little different — an opportunity to explore their wellness through non-invasive bioenergetic testing.

Four gift package options. Four price points. One thoughtful gift.

$50 — Taste of Balance
A $60 Value

Just curious? Start here.
A one-time introduction to bioenergetic testing.

A thoughtful, budget-friendly gift.

$100 — Discover Your Balance
A $120 Value

One look is interesting. A second look adds perspective.
Two scans provide an opportunity to revisit the initial assessment and compare findings.

$120 Featured Gift — Build Your Balance
A $180 Value

More than a first look — an opportunity to follow along.
Three scans provide an initial assessment and two opportunities to reassess energetic patterns over time.

A good middle-ground option for someone interested in exploring the process further.

$200 — Renew Your Balance
A $240 Value

Give the gift of ongoing discovery.
Four scans offer the most opportunities for follow-up and comparison.

The most comprehensive package — $40 below regular session pricing.

A thoughtful wellness gift - no matter where they live!

All packages are available in person or remotely, making this a thoughtful gift for loved ones near and far.
